A FINE FIGURE OF A YAM.

Yes.

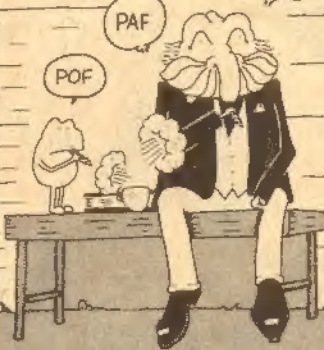

They sent him home in a flag-draped crate marked "perishable."

We were pretty proud!

PAF

POF

Well, he kept perfectly all winter and we put him out that spring. We wanted him to sorta... send down roots.

SCHLUP

But the dogs licked him constantly and he kept trying to force his attentions on the rubarb.

HUH.

...and Granny Wad kept asking "Think that Waynell hurt the rubarb?"

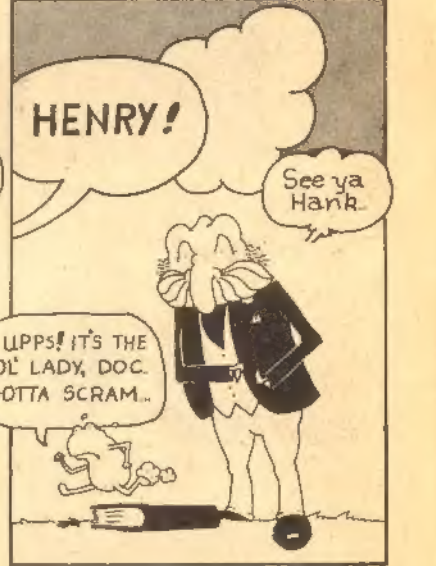

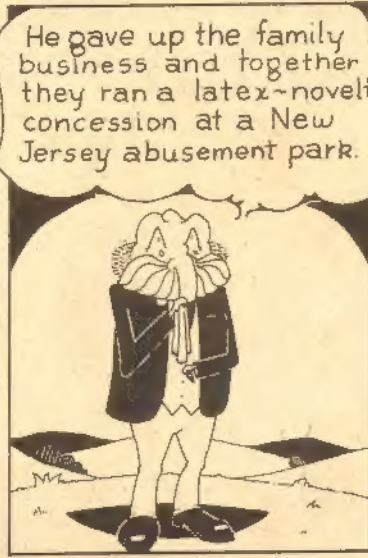

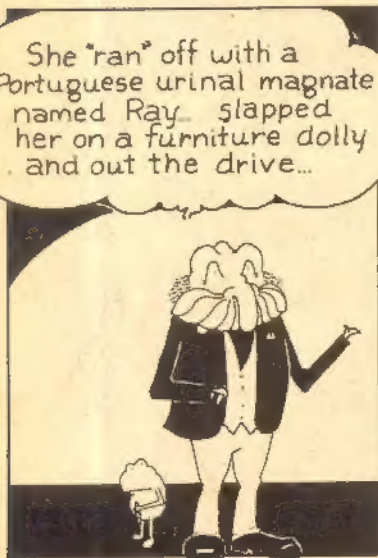

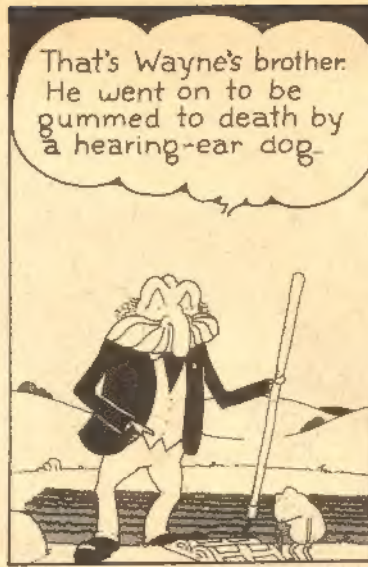

AWFUL.

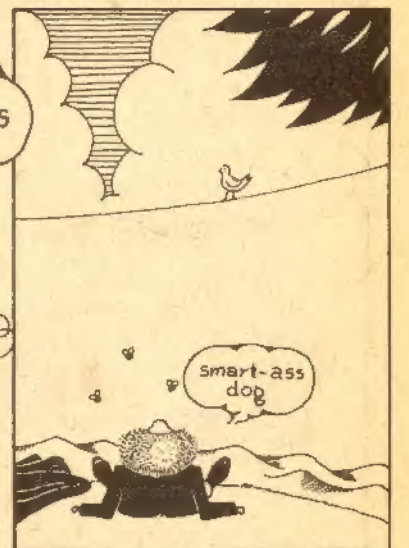

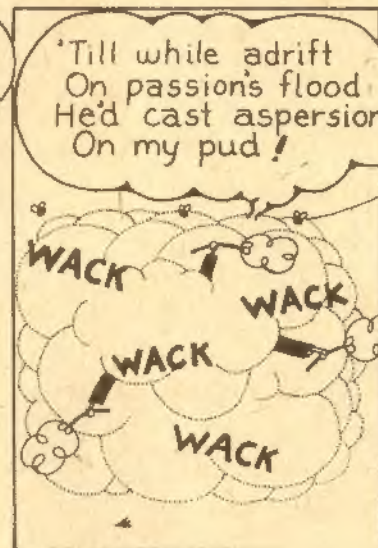

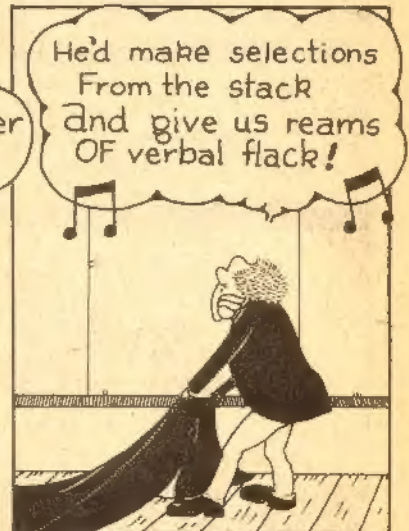

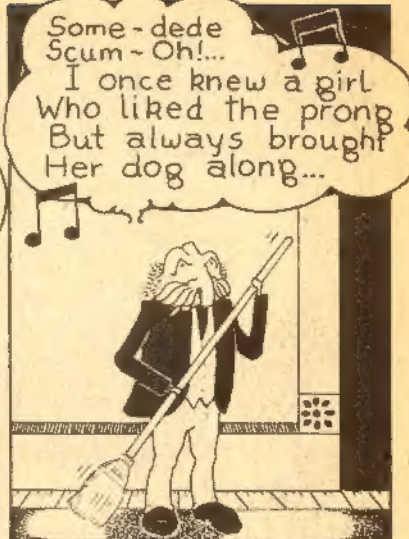

So that fall Great Uncle Wad carved him for a Jack-o-Lantern. 'course he said it was a mistake.

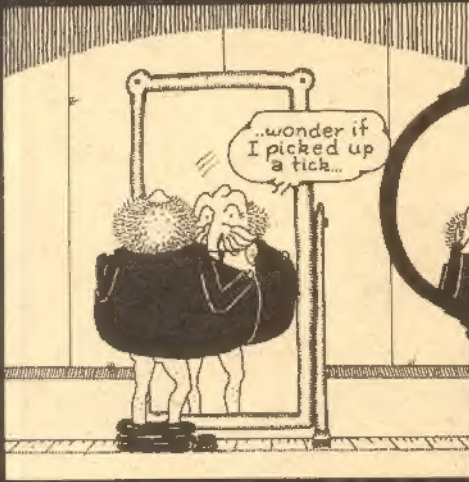

PROBABLY THE GREATER KINDNESS.
